

Product information

ATF Automatic Transmission Fluid VI

Bardahl ATF Automatic Transmission Fluid VI is a fully synthetic transmission fluid based on very high quality base oils, specially developed for 6 speed ZF automatic transmissions. The balanced composition guarantees a smooth operation and smooth shifting.

Applications

Mainly intended for the 6-speed automatic transmission from ZF, as fitted in BMW, Jaguar and Land Rover, but also suitable for other OEMs which recommend this type of liquid (eg. Audi Quattro).

Features

Anti-wear protection: significantly longer transmission life.
Friction Characteristics: very smooth shifting and no vibrations.
Longer oil life: excellent thermal and oxidation stability.

Performances

ATF Automatic Transmission Fluid VI is a superior quality oil designed for excellent protection and extended lifespan of the automatic transmission. The oil has excellent cold-start properties and contributes to fuel saving.
